

Certified Rigging Carabiners

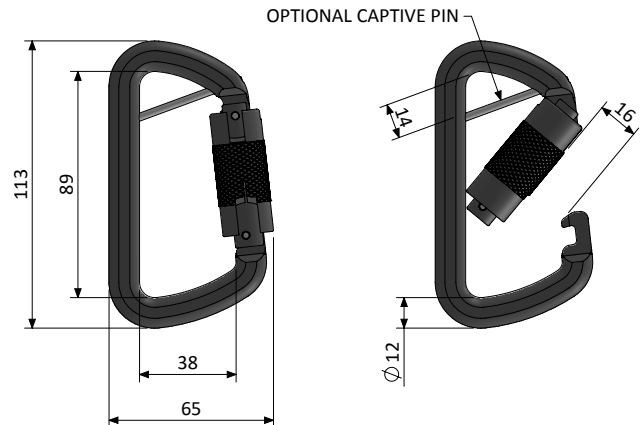

WLL 800kg (AS4991)

Vertex's range of carabiners may be used for a range of lifting and handling applications. They are designed, tested and certified as a lifting device in accordance with Australian Standard AS4991-2004, and so may be used on their own, in combination with other rigging gear or as a removable attachment to certified slings.

PRODUCT INFORMATION

- Quickly secure and release loads
- Suitable for lifting points with restricted space
- Safely rig and de-rig at height without loose components
- Working Load Limit (WLL): 800kg
- Certified to AS4991-2004 (Lifting Devices)
- Individually proof-loaded to 1600kg in accordance with AS4991-2004
- Minimum Breaking Load (MBL) 4000kg (5:1)
- Unique Serial Number marked on each carabiner
- Fully marked in accordance with AS4991-2004
- Test certificates supplied with all carabiners
- Cold formed steel construction
- Black gloss finish (minimum 50-hour salt spray corrosion resistance)
- Dual-action locking gate
- Removable captive bar supplied with every carabiner for securing carabiner to sling
- To be used in major axis only

CLA-801

CLA-802

